SCOTTISH RUGBY

SUPPORTER COLLECTION 2009/10

From issuing the challenge to England to play, and then win, the first ever International Rugby Match in 1871 and the establishment of the SRU in 1873, Scotland has been a major force in Rugby across the World.

The Scottish Rugby brand is recognised through its distinctive Official Thistle logo which is seen on its International teams competing in the 6 Nations, Rugby World Cups and International Tour matches.

BrandCo has been an Official Licensee of Scottish Rugby since 2007 and the product areas covered are:

- Supporter Apparel for Men, Women and Juniors
- Headwear
- Knitted scarves and beanies

All products are 100% Official and carry the Official Thistle Scotland Rugby Logo along with Official Product labels and trims. The distinctive Official Licensed Product swing ticket is carried by all products allowing for immediate recognition by consumers at retail.

Products are segmented into the following categories to maximise the consumer appeal:

Classic – simple, clean styling in classic colours

Heritage – contemporary designs and colours using historic logos

Supporter – a combination of the Scotland logo with the Saltire

The products are aimed at Scotland rugby supporters of all ages and allow them to associate themselves even more closely to their heroes on the field.

The Scotland Rugby Supporter ranges are designed to offer a broad appeal at retail, offering Official, quality and competitively priced products to the widest consumer audience.
